The ideal family retreat

The Buxton is all about family. From the big entrance hall that's ideal for muddy boots and paws, to the large statement media unit in the lounge, it has everything you need for the perfect family getaway.

After a long day exploring, the comfortable sofa is great for cosy nights in. Gather around the statement media unit and get ready for movie night with the Buxton's optional cinema pack. With a footstool and additional cube seating as standard, space should not be a problem. The more the merrier!

The Buxton's natural earthy tones are brought to life by pops of burnt orange throughout. With co-ordinated curtains and carefully considered design features it's all about the detail in this home.

But it's not just all about style - between its standard specification and key options (including bath to replace shower and kitchen upgrade pack) the Buxton is a holiday home that works hard to make your life easy.
